PRAYER BREAKFAST HISTORY

The annual Arthur “Pappy” Kennedy Prayer Breakfast celebrates the lives and achievements of Arthur “Pappy” Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. This event is hosted by the YMCA of Central Florida, the Southwest Orlando Jaycees, and the City of Orlando’s Martin Luther King Commission, and brings together more than a thousand civic leaders, pastors, and Central Florida neighbors together in faith, prayer, and the shared commitment to strengthen our community and improve lives. Visit ymcacf.org/events for more details about this year’s Prayer Breakfast event.

ABOUT ARTHUR “PAPPY” KENNEDY

Arthur “Pappy” Kennedy was Orlando’s first African American City Council Member, taking the oath of office in 1973 and serving two terms until 1980. Pappy was an advocate of higher education, and he served as the organizer of the Orlando Negro Chamber of Commerce, President of the Jones High School Parent-Teacher Association, and was instrumental in the organization of the Orange County Parent-Teacher Council. With the goal of improving his community, he worked with many organizations including Meals on Wheels, the United Negro College Fund, and the NAACP. Although Mr. Kennedy passed away in 2000, his legacy lives on in our Central Florida community.

Scholarships are open to any outstanding minority high school students who plan to matriculate at a post-secondary institution by Fall 2023. Applicants must be in good academic standing, demonstrate strong leadership skills, and be engaged in community service. Specific criteria includes:

- Overall grade point average (GPA) of 2.5 or higher — current transcript/report card must be provided
- Identify any YMCA and/or community involvement
- Strong volunteer/charitable service record
- Participation in academic leadership activities and/or extracurricular programs
- Two letters of recommendation

Applicants are also required to complete an essay on the following:

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s assassination took place on Thursday, April 4, 1968, in Memphis, Tennessee. Dr. King penned this quote: "Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that." Share your reaction to this quote and provide at least two ways you can fight against the spread of hate and encourage love for others in your community.
